

Fort Lauderdale Youth Ballet 2020-2021 Faculty

Courtney Campbell Contemporary

Courtney Campbell was born in Longwood, Florida. She started dancing at the age of three and began her competitive dancing at the age of seven. She trained from fifteen to twenty-five hours a week in all genres under Tamara Duvall at the Duvall Dance Academy in Apopka, Florida. Tamara focused on dance fundamentals, and it is where Courtney's strong foundation in technique began.

In August of 2012, Courtney moved with her family to South Florida. She was then able to train and dance in select studios with many of the best instructors that were working and giving master classes in Fort Lauderdale and Miami. Originally focusing on being a ballerina, Courtney soon found her love to be Contemporary, Improv and Hip Hop and quickly decided that the commercial world was where she would focus her future.

Courtney has been able to travel the country and attend numerous competitions and conventions over the years, she is an "Artist Simply Human (ASH) Assistant" and has traveled with them for their 2017-18 tour year, she is also is an "Intrigue True Performer" a "Radix Core Performer" and a NUVO "Break Out Artist".

Courtney has trained with Wildabeast, Tassandra Chaves, Rudy Abreu, JoJo Gomez, Matt Cady, DJ Smart, Tovariss Wilson, Brian Friedman, Lisette Bustamonte, Travis Wall, Nappy Tabs, Desmond Richardson, Dwight Rhoden, Teddy Forance, CJ Salvador and many others. On three occasions she has received, "The Choreographer Award" for her solos, the highest level of award given from the judges.

Courtney has been a featured dancer in a Bollywood International Dance Video and has won first place numerous times, she has received scholarships for and attended summer intensives at, Urban Legends in LA, The Broadway Dance Center in NYC, ADMA College of the Performing Arts, UNC School of the Arts, Joffrey in NYC, The Edge in LA, Debbie Reynolds Studio in LA, Shannon Mathers Trans4M in Anaheim CA, Millennium in LA and DancerPalooza, CA. Courtney aspires to keep learning and growing through the classes she teaches and the ones she continues to take.
